

Senior Coach – Douglas Gymnastics Club, Cork, Ireland

Background

Douglas Gymnastic Club is one of Irelands leading Gymnastics clubs in the disciplines of Mens and Womens Artistic Gymnastics, based in Cork, Ireland. We have male and female gymnasts representing the club, our region and Internationally.

We currently train out of two venues in Cork City, and we have ambitious plans to develop a new Gymnastics centre over the next 2 years.

We have in excess of 500 members ranging from recreational members to elite athletes and we plan to increase our membership significantly over the next number of years. Our clubs website is at <http://www.douglasgym.com>.

Position Description:

We are immediately seeking a highly qualified coach to join our team as a Senior Gymnastics Coach. The successful candidate will be required to work with mainly with our Women's Artistic squad members at Junior, and Development level as well as our National & International gymnasts, and also to assist with our Boys squads from time to time.

The successful applicant will be responsible for the planning, implementation and progressive development and growth of the programs and the club.

Good organizational & communication skills are essential alongside the ability to work with a team and also alone. The applicant must be self motivated, enthusiastic and dedicated to the sport.

There may be opportunities to travel to competitions/camps and the applicant must be willing to make themselves available where necessary to meet these demands. The applicant will also be required to work evenings and weekend.

The successful application will be subject to a background check from the Garda Vetting Central Unit. (police character reference) as well as reference checks from previous employers.

Salary will be €27,000, which is negotiable based on experience.

For applicants who are not citizens of a European Economic Area (EEA) country (the EU countries plus Norway, Iceland, Liechtenstein and Switzerland), the club will assist in obtaining the relevant work permit/visa/authorisation.

For more information about the position, or to submit an application, along please contact us at info@douglasgym.com.